Questionnaire for finding your mentor

Mentor not yet available

If you do not yet have a person in mind who would fit as your perfect mentor, please use the following questions to find out more about your current needs. This questionnaire should help you to finally come up with some potential names. Please fill them in at the end of your application form (you don't need to send us this form.) Thank you.

Gender:

Would you prefer a female or male mentor?

What is your preference based on?

Professional proximity:

How important is specific professional proximity on the part of your mentor to you?

very important   indifferent   not important

How important is integration into specialist networks on the part of your mentor to you?

very important   indifferent   not important

How important to you is the specific and informal knowledge of your research area's culture on the part of your mentor?

very important   indifferent   not important

How important to you is your mentor's acquaintance of the research methods in your field?

very important   indifferent   not important

Third-party funding:

How important to you is experience with successfully obtaining external funding/grants?

very important   indifferent   not important

Publications:

How important is an extensive publication list with a high impact factor to you?

very important   indifferent   not important

How important to you are insights into the procedure and organization of scientific writing itself?

very important   indifferent   not important

Care responsibilities

Do you prefer a mentor with or without family and/or care obligations?

yes   no   indifferent

How important should be the issue of balancing family care and career to her or him?

very important   indifferent   not important

Spatial / organizational proximity:

How important is spatial proximity to the mentor to you?

very important   indifferent   not important

If necessary, would you travel to face-to-face meetings or would you prefer virtual meetings?

Do you prefer a mentor inside or outside the TU Wien?

1. mentor name:

2. mentor name: